ORDER RE LETTERS ROGATORY

Re: Dkt. No. 300, 317

12 On April 21, 2016, the court received a letter from the National Court Administration for 13 the Republic of Korea returning the Letters Rogatory to the former Nongshim and Samyang
14 employees [Docket No. 317] for failing to comply with certain requirements of the Hague
15 Convention. The court attaches the letter from the National Court Administration as an exhibit to 16 this order. As the court previously stated, it is the parties' responsibility to comply with all
17 procedural and substantive requirements associated with the Letters Rogatory.

18 If the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs ("DPPs") wish to submit amended Letters Rogatory, they 19 should file redacted versions of the revised Letters Rogatory, the stipulation with the parties'
20 agreement to issuance of the revised Letters Rogatory and approval of the revised Letters
21 Rogatory as to form, and should provide the court with all required materials, including the 22 certified Korean translations, for the revised Letters Rogatory by April 28, 2016. If the DPPs wish
23 to submit a revised Letter Rogatory to the former Ottogi employee [Docket No. 338], they may 24 also do so at this time.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: April 21, 2016
